How to Mop With Your Pearls On: It Takes Grit

Finding the Genuine Pearl Within You

Your attitude towards situations everyday can make all the difference. Edie shares some of her personal, inspirational and humorous stories that show the benefits of building your string of pearls, which are guides to healing one's brokenness. The String is your life and the Pearls represent your unique necklace. Edie's stories will define what each of the Pearl colors represents to better help you understand your passion, help build more perseverance, and leave you with a positive projection of your life. Faith is a powerful element of the presentation so components may include scripture (depending on venue) to let you know you are not alone in building your pearls of life. You will leave knowing you have the grit to do hard things. Edie's story is your story. We invite you to view a video of Edie's presentation on EdieHand.com

Topic 2: Cancer the Unexpected Gift

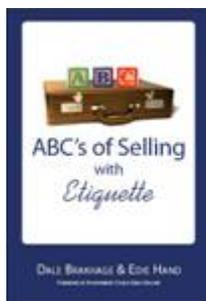

Stories of Full of Love with No Boundaries

After numerous battles with cancer and living with chronic illness, Edie Hand knows faith, the right attitude, and the support of friends and family, and came to understand the touch of unseen hands was critical in beating this disease.

This program is based on her and Dr. Daugherty's book of stories about average people and their common bond; the enemy of cancer and the subsequent suffering associated with it. Conquering cancer is not done necessarily by surviving disease free, but by finding benefit in the experiences. Extraordinary lessons are to be learned from ordinary people - not in dying, but in living. These stories teach us to live a meaningful life. You too can do hard things!
