

EdieHand

sharing the art of living

Edie Hand is a businesswoman, speaker, media personality, filmmaker, international author, and Mom. She has authored or been a part of authoring over twenty-five books.

The Edie Hand Foundation's brand "Women of True Grit" encourages women to share their stories and passion from the trials they face to their triumphs.

Edie along with FedEx is leveraging this brand for a special project that will inspire people from all walks of life. She is excited to be working with extraordinary women globally through FedEx and sharing stories that have led these women into powerful leadership roles. Their stories with Edie's pen in her third act will inspire other companies and folks in their communities during these uncertain times of history to be encouraged by these engaging women's life lessons to help them find their purpose-driven lives.

Edie Hand is also partnering with Mark Sims, President of Sims Productions, LLC and together they are developing historical film projects centered on Birmingham, Alabama. The first production in development is a film based on the book, Rising Road by Sharon Davies. Additionally, a historical documentary about the artist, Steve Skipper was completed with Fig Tree Media Group. More information on current and future projects is available at BirminghamHistorical.com

She has starred in National Commercials, daytime television soaps, hosted national TV and developed several radio shows and vignettes across the country. She was the CEO of a full-service ad company, Hand N Hand Advertising, in Birmingham and Daphne, Alabama for over thirty years. In recent years she partnered with her Hollywood actor/businessman son, Linc Hand, to form Hand N Hand Entertainment to continue her writing for film, television, radio, and podcasts.

Edie also founded over fifteen years ago, the Edie Hand Foundation, in memory of her three young Blackburn brothers, to help pay life forward with acts of kindness to others with broken hearts. Edie is a numerous Cancer survivor and understands living with chronic illness but always finds the grit to keep moving onward and upward. She learned how to turn hard things into beautiful situations.

She also comes from a wonderful family heritage of songwriting, acting, and music from the Hood-Hacker-Presley Family. Her legendary cousin was Elvis Presley where she learned first-hand about paying life forward through charities in One's community.

Edie Hand (formerly Edith Blackburn Hand) lives near Birmingham, Alabama but her heart is in Hollywood, California with her only son, Linc Hand, and his wife Victoria.

To learn more about Edie, her books, the charities she supports and her speaking topics visit her websites:

EdieHand.com | HnHEntertainment.biz | OurAmericanNetwork.org
EdieHandFoundation.org | RxHealthyLife.com | BirminghamHistorical.com

Here is an overview of Edie's Speaking Topics

- How to Mop with Your Pearls On: A Guide to finding your inner Woman of True Grit
- Cancer the Unexpected Gift: Lives Well Lived
- Back Porch Laughter: Passion, Perseverance, Positive Projections
- ABC's of Networking in Today's World
- The Rides: From Graceland to God's Amazing Grace

Book Edie Hand for your next business or community meeting/event
(Customized presentations upon request)

Email: ediemahand@gmail.com Phone or text: (205)960-1345

If you would like to donate through PayPal, email funds to edie@ediehandfoundation.org

"You can do hard things and turn them into beautiful situations."

Photo of Edie Hand by Josh Fogel (www.joshfogel.com) and hand photograph by Bill Love (<https://visionsunlimitedkc.com>)